Classes for Adults and Teens

Three classes will be offered for adults and teens. These classes will be presented as 50 minute sessions, enabling individuals to participate in two classes each evening.

Life Stewardship — Rev. Russell Smith

What is Life Stewardship? It's how we care for and manage our God-given resources so that we can most effectively pursue His calling on our life. You might think of it as "sharpening the saw." In this course, we'll look at five areas:

- Stewardship of the Physical Body
- Stewardship of Finances/Material Goods
- Stewardship of Emotions/Relationships
- Stewardship of Community/Society
- Stewardship of Vocation/Mind

When we attend to all of these areas, we find that our enjoyment of life and effectiveness for ministry are dramatically improved.

The Life of David — Rev. Nathan Wright

"Now, O LORD, God of Israel, fulfill your word that you promised to your servant David."

2 Chron. 6:17 In this class we will meet David, God's servant, and see how his life fits into the big story of the Bible. We will cover five lessons:

- David: The Faithful Youth
- David: The Wanderer
- David: The King
- David: The Father
- David: The Psalmist

Survey of Proverbs — Rod Ford

"The beginning of wisdom is this: get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight," declares Proverbs 4:7. Wisdom is at center stage in this book that points us to Christ as the ultimate answer to our search for wisdom. In this class we will look at five areas:

- The Beginning of Wisdom
- Identification of Wisdom
- Bringing Wisdom to Your Community
- Bringing Wisdom to Your Relationships
- Applying Wisdom to Yourself
