*Call to Worship Isaiah 9:1-5 Margaret Heidenreich

One: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;

All: Those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined.

One: Let the heavens be glad and let the earth rejoice;

All: Let all of creation sing for joy before the Lord; for he is coming.

One: He is coming to judge the earth and he will judge with righteousness and truth.

All: And he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Prince of Peace.

First Lesson

Genesis 3:8-15

Margaret Heidenreich

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid." And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, 'Cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.' "

Prayer for Christmas Eve

All: Most Loving Father, thank you for this night and for all it represents. Thank you for the hope you bestow, the peace you bring, the love you pour out, and the joy you give. We praise you most of all for Jesus, your Word made flesh. May he light our way as the holy star lights the way for us to prepare for Christ's birth in our lives today. Amen.

Second Lesson

Luke 1:26-38

Brian Calfano

In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you." Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end." "How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

Candlelight Carol

John Rutter

Covenant Choir

How do you capture the wind on the water? How do you count all the stars in the sky? How can you measure the love of a mother? Or how can you write down a baby's first cry? Candlelight, angel light, firelight and star-glow, shine on his cradle 'til breaking of dawn. Gloria, gloria in excelsis Deo! Angels are singing, "The Christ child is born."

Shepherds and wise men will kneel and adore him, Seraphim 'round him, their vigil will keep. Nations proclaim him their Lord and their savior, but Mary will hold him and sing him to sleep. Candlelight, angel light, firelight and star-glow, shine on his cradle 'til breaking of dawn. Gloria, gloria in excelsis Deo! Angels are singing, "The Christ child is born"

Find him in Bethlehem laid in a manger. Christ our redeemer, asleep in the hay. Godhead incarnate and hope of salvation. A child with his mother that first Christmas day. Candlelight, angel light, firelight and star-glow, shine on his cradle 'til breaking of dawn. Gloria, gloria in excelsis Deo! Angels are singing, "The Christ child is born."

Third Lesson

Luke 2:1-7

Randy Page

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register.

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

(This Holy Night)Christmas Melody from Latvia
Translated by Vance Wolverton

This holy night a heavenly light is beaming, all hearts respond in faith and love now gleaming. The Son of God, his peace to us bestowing, while in a manger ox and sheep are lowing.

This holy night we come to him with singing, in him all hope and love and joy upspringing. He teaches us to love and help each other, and look to him for guidance as a brother.

This holy night the starry gates stand open. His light springs forth to show the way to heaven. So God to us his only Son entrusting, as on our heads he showers forth his blessing.

Fourth Lesson

Luke 2:8-20

Marney Weis

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Christmas Offering

This year, for our annual Christmas Mission Offering, we're partnering with the Evangelical Church in Niger (the EERN) in their one well/one evangelist project. Niger is the poorest country on earth, according to United Nations statistics, and many communities lack safe drinking water. The EERN is committed to building churches in every province in Niger, and often starts by digging wells to provide needed water in the community. Depending on the location and depth of the well, a new well costs at least $4,000, sometimes as much as $15,000. We're hoping to collect enough money to fund one well. To contribute mark a pew envelope "Christmas." All loose or undesignated gifts will be used to support the ongoing ministry of this congregation. Thank you for being generous!

Fifth Lesson

John 1:1-5, 14

Heidi Balz

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

One: Tonight we conclude our time of Advent waiting. We've lit the candles of hope, peace, joy, and love. Now is the time for our expectancy to be fulfilled as Jesus begins to birth his purposes in our own lives. With grateful thanks for the birth of our Savior we light the Christ Candle whose light will burn eternal in our hearts.

All: Almighty God, we thank you for Jesus' gift of your love born among us that we may know the light of eternal life. Help us to carry this light in our hearts, shining in the world to show the way of God's life and love. Amen.

*We Welcome the Light of Christ

The ushers will come forward and light the candles for the people seated at the ends of the pews. As your candle is lit, please pass the light to the person seated next to you. Remember the person with the unlit candle should tilt theirs toward the lit candle to prevent the hot wax from dripping. Keep passing the light until all candles are lit.
